Honorable Guests, Sponsors, Volunteers and Friends:

India Day 2014 is finally here – this extraordinary Greater Harrisburg area event is possible because of you!

On behalf of the Asian Indian Americans of Central Pennsylvania (AIACPA), we want to take this opportunity to thank our sponsors, donors, and volunteers that have come together to celebrate spectacular Indian culture, food, and talent; we sincerely appreciate your generosity, time, and support.

As a nonprofit organization AIACPA has been dedicated to enriching the lives of Asian Americans and the larger community for over two decades. Our efforts have spanned issues from humanitarian efforts, helping with local and global disasters, raising funds for the underserved and as a champion of the scintillating entertainment that India is known for.

Past India Day celebrations at the Forum, on an average, attracted over 1,500 attendees! The excitement from each of those previous events culminated in India Day 2014: A Community Fair. We hope you network, socialize, enjoy Indian cuisine, shopping, entertainment, and in meaningful conversations with our community and business leaders.

AIACPA would especially like to thank our corporate sponsors; our co-sponsor Governor's Advisory Commission on Asian American Affairs (GACAAA), Dr. John 'Ski' Sygielski (President, HACC) and his extremely cooperative staff. Our special thanks to Ms. Tiffany Hwang Lawson, Executive Director of GACAAA, all local organizations, the AIACPA Board and its Executive team. Without everyone's confidence and support we wouldn't have been able to achieve this.

Finally, volunteers have been the life and blood of India Day 2014. We are indebted to all volunteers and their families for their support, hard & smart work and sacrifices. AIACPA Board hopes to continue this community activity.

*Enjoy, make new friends, reconnect and rejuvenate;
India Day 2014: Community Fair is here for you.*

Sincerely,

Vinendra Trivedi,
President
